Wants To Come Here Since War Is Ended

Like many another good Yank who went to war to win or be killed, Pvt. Charles Henry Smith, 12th Infantry supply company, 1st division, is looking forward to receiving the discharge papers that will allow him to come back to El Paso. He got to France while the war was on but the fighting stopped before his outfit had a chance to get to the front. His division is now stationed at Le Mans, about 100 miles from Paris, but expects to make his home here. He is a nephew of Mrs. H. C. Crabtree, 705 North Florence street and is 22 years old.

WATERING PLACES FOR ENLISTED MEN

Tours, France, Dec. 28.—Nearly all of the five districts in France which have been designated as "leave areas" for American soldiers are well known summer watering places to which only the wealthy usually resorted in peace time.

The great hotels, which then were occupied by tourists from America and other parts of the world, now shelter the American soldiers who are on leave after a period of service at the front.

Beautiful bathing buildings and other facilities for attractions which are connected with these hotels, or conducted for the benefit of tourists, now have been taken over by the U. S. C. A. military bands have been ordered to all these "leave areas" and U. S. C. A. entertainment programs are given in all of them. The location of these areas follow:

One at Bay, with headquarters at Ats-les-Bains and including Chantilly and Challes-les-Bains. This has been in full operation since February.

Two—Brittany area, including St. Malo, Paramo and Dinard.

Three—Auvergne area, including La Bourbeille and Mont Dore.

Four—Dauphiny area, with Grenoble as headquarters, and having the beautiful French Alpine watering places of Uriage and Allevard. This is one of the areas of France surpassing Switzerland in beauty.

Five—Ardeche area, with Vals-les-Bains.

RIGID RULES FOR COBLENZ HUNS

Yanks Check Any Tendency Toward Abuse by Foe in Occupied Area.

Coblentz, Germany, Dec. 28.—(Associated Press).—Rules for the guidance of inhabitants of regions occupied by American forces were issued today by Gen. Pershing.

Except for minor regulations, the Americans have not interfered in local affairs up till today. Cafes have been open and theaters filled night after night. Newspapers, until recently have published without restraint such articles as they desired, while crowds promaded the streets until midnight, and even later.

No Serious Incidents.
The Germans had come to believe that such conditions would continue, and while there were no serious incidents as a result of the tolerant rule of the Americans, it was deemed best to check any tendency toward abuse.

The regulations published today were issued by Gen. James McAndrew, chief of staff, "by command of Gen. Pershing."

In drafting them, an effort was made to avoid the inclusion of any rules which would merely humiliate the population, or which savored of retaliation or revenge.

Identification Cards.
Under the terms of the regulations, the authorities will know the exact whereabouts of every individual, for each must carry an identification card and give names of places where he lives. Householders must keep posted on their doors a list of the residents of their buildings with their ages, nationality and occupations. All weapons and ammunition must be surrendered. The gathering of troops, soldiers, civilians and services will be allowed without permission.

Punishment Promised.
The people are informed that a military court will punish any one who is found guilty of "who commits any act whatever injurious to the American army."

The customs of soldiers trading or selling alcohol or soap to the Germans is forbidden by the rules.

Among other things, the new rules provide:

The sale or gift of all alcoholic drinks, except the light wines and beer, is forbidden. Alcohol for medicinal or industrial purposes does not come within this prohibition.

The sale or gift of light wines and beer is prohibited except from 11 o'clock a. m. to 2 o'clock p. m. and from 5 o'clock p. m. to 9 o'clock p. m.

Mail is subject to censorship by the American military authorities. The use of the telephone and long distance telephone is forbidden except by permission from the local military commander.

The use of aerial wireless apparatus is forbidden.

Secure Communication.
No person may, without authority from the local military commander, transmit any message or communication to or from persons outside the territory occupied by American troops except through the postoffice.

The use of carrier pigeons is forbidden.

The taking of photographs outside the limits of the military zone is forbidden.

HEROIC FIGHT MADE BY A BRITISH DECOY SHIP

London, Eng., Dec. 28.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The loss of the British decoy ship Dunraven in a battle with a German submarine constitutes one of the most heroic episodes of the anti-submarine war. With their vessel ablaze, and boxes of cordite and shells exploding, the after gun crew stuck to their gun until the magazine exploded and blew them and their gun into the air. Meanwhile the battle with the submarine was fiercely waged.

This action took place in August, 1917. In her role of an armed British merchant ship, the Dunraven was sailing her course in the lanes haunted by the submarines, when the U-boat opened fire upon her at 5000 yards. The Dunraven returned the fire, reduced her speed to enable her to overtake her. To coax him on, wireless signals were sent out reading: "Help. Come quickly. Submarine chasing and shelling me."

Finally, when the submarine's shells began falling close, the Dunraven stopped and the usual "panic party" abandoned the ship. The Dunraven was then on fire and the submarine closed in to a distance of 400 yards, but was partly obscured from view by dense clouds of smoke issuing from the Dunraven's stern. Although he knew that the magazine must explode if he waited and that a gun and a gun's crew lay concealed

Kneeling In Prayer Saves Soldier's Life
Uniontown, Pa., Dec. 28.—The fact that he was kneeling in prayer saved the life of Pvt. John Quarick, Jr., of this place. A letter from the soldier in France says that he was saying his prayers at the side of his cot when a German shell tore his tent to pieces, broke his rifle in two, blew his shoes to pieces, ripped a hole in his steel hat and inflicted a slight wound in his head. "I probably would have been killed had I been in a standing posture," he said.

New York's public schools now teach girls calisthenic work, manhandling and shampooing.

Can't Puncture--Can't Blow-Out--Dayton Airless Tires

They are always on the job and ready to go. They ride as smoothly as pneumatics and protect your cars from jolts, jars and vibrations as fully as do pneumatics.

Piers of live elastic rubber built about one inch apart inside the casing and vulcanized or welded to it take the place of an inner tube and absorb the shocks and jolts.

They are economical—you do not have to carry any spare tires or tubes.

They are not new; tens of thousands of them in the past six years have been sold to satisfied users.

They are just the thing for your Ford or Maxwell or Chevrolet or any car using a 30x3 or 30x3½ or 31x4, whether passenger car or truck, as they are made in different carrying capacities.

We are the exclusive dealers for them in El Paso County. Write us or phone us for further information or demonstration or ask some of the people to whom we have sold them, among whom are

Mothers!

An Appeal For Your Children

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, salts or cathartics. How you hated them. How you fought them. How you dreaded their after-effects.

That was all wrong, but then nobody knew better. With our children it's different. The day of harsh physics is over. We don't force the bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after-effects. And the dose is a candy tablet.

Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't know what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender bowels are harmed by them. The modern way is to give a gentle laxative more frequently. To keep the bowels always active. The best method is Cascarets.

Cascarets are candy tablets. Children love their pleasant taste. They cost only 10 cents a box, with full directions for children's dosage at all ages. Babies too! Give Cascarets, then don't worry—they never disappoint.
